

She and Terezakis say they will be back for a second season and look forward to working with the teams. “It was just such a great working environment. We all got along really well and Bill’s team of Vicki, Mo [Gomyo] and Geoff were all open and happy to help with whatever may need doing. It was great, everyone got along and had each other’s back. It wasn’t Unfortunate at all.”

